Doubting Thomas and the Ale House Conspiracies (Paperback)

By Jason Etheredge

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Doubting Thomas The Ale House Conspiracies is the story of a young man who is discontent with his job who frequents his favorite bar, Ye Olde Ale House in the afternoons. He has recently fallen for a beautiful young attorney whom he met at the bar. In the coming weeks he also meets William Stanley, an older gentleman who resembles a famous comic book creator and who also has a hacking cough and a broken heart both of which originated from the terror attacks in New York on September 11th, 2001. In Thomas and Mr. Stanley's conversations, the latter discusses how his wife died and the controversial accusations that 9/11 was not as it seemed. Thomas along with his favorite bartender, Carey, is unsure of the old man's conspiracy theories are true. His knowledge of different secret societies, including the Illuminati, The Knights Templar, Rosicrucians, Masons, Skull and Bones, Bilderbergs, and the New World Order has Thomas and Carey question his sanity. The conversations at the bar are filled with controversy and unsubstantiated...
