DEADLINES ARE MURDER: A SAM MONROE MYSTERY

Anne Elizabeth MacDonald. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 256 pages. Former banker turned budding romance novelist Sam Monroe is wanted in the murder of her soon to be ex-husbands grad assistant and lover, Ariella Fantini. Ariella is murdered while Sam is in Florida celebrating both her mothers birthday and the publication of her first novel. Sam swiftly proves that she is just about the only person who could not have committed the murder. This swift change in her status from primary murder suspect to a person of interest has other consequences. Ariellas father, a mob boss on the run, makes Sam an offer she doesnt know how to refuse, help solve the murder of his daughter by using her connections in the English Department at the University. Since Mr. Fantini is on the most wanted lists of the Boston Police and the FBI, he needs to watch out for his own back. Sam puts together a list of potential suspects that includes a jealous ex-boyfriend, a plagiarist who is using Ariellas work and Rick, Sams soon to be ex. A local news reporter with connections to a friend of Ariellas becomes involved too. When this friend is murdered for Ariellas journal and Sams home is ransacked and her life threatened, it becomes clear that Sam is more prey than hunter. Mr. Fantini and his ever present bodyguard, the police and Sams friends and family realize that Sam is in danger and scramble to find her before she becomes the next victim.
