And thus the two forces confronted each other--they looked at us, and we looked at them, while the great guns of Fort Totten frowned down upon them. During the anxious hours of the siege, there was some jollity mixed with war s stern discipline. Lieutenant W. C. Hunt, Deputy-Provost, was ordered to raise a company from among the citizens to aid in the defence. He at once appealed to the sutlers and traders to volunteer, and to their credit be it recorded, that they did so with alacrity. Lieutenant Hunt in a very short time had a volunteer company of a hundred men, every one a sutler or trader. This company took the designation of letter B, and the men were armed and thoroughly drilled by Lieutenant Hunt, who took as much pride in his...
