Well, I dare say our conferences have looked very odd. Theyve looked very beautiful, and theyve been very beautiful. Oh, Ive told her the sort you are! the young man pursued. That of course hasnt made her love me better. No, nor love me, said Owen. Of course, you know, she says--as far as that goes--that she loves me. And do you say you love her I say nothing else--I say it all the while. I said it the other day a dozen times. Fleda made no immediate rejoinder to this, and before she could choose one he repeated his question of a moment before. Am I to tell my solicitor to act She had at that moment turned away from this solution, precisely because she saw in it the great chance of her secret. If she should determine him to adopt it she might put out her hand and take him. It would shut in Mrs. Gereths face the open door of surrender: she would flare up and fight, flying the flag of a passionate, an heroic defence. The case would obviously go against her, but the proceedings would last longer than Monas patience or Owens propriety. With a formal rupture he would be at large; and she had only to tighten her fingers round the string that would raise the curtain on that scene. You tell me you say you love her, but is there nothing more in...
