My main object in such conversation would be to hedge against divisions in the Republican ranks generally, and particularly for the contest of 1860. The point of danger is the temptation in different localities to platform for something which will be popular just there, but which, nevertheless, will be a firebrand elsewhere, especially in a national convention. As instances, the movement against foreigners in Massachusetts; in Ohio, to repeal the Fugitive Slave law. In these things there is explosive matter enough to blow up a half a dozen national conventions, if it gets into them. - A. Lincoln to Schuyler Colfax, July 6, 1859. In its issue of May 25, 1859, The Daily Express and Herald of Dubuque, Iowa, the most influential Democratic paper in the state at that time, contained the following racy editorial article, the product probably of the editor...
