Not illustrated. 1906 Excerpt: . day is at all windy, burning eyes will be unavoidable unless some protection is used. The author and his employees have found that the goggles worn by automobilists are a great help. They are often sold by opticians, or can be secured through the Chicago Eye Shield Company, 143-145 Clinton Street, Chicago, 111. A 5 per cent solution of hydrochloric acid is useful for removing the lime-sulphur from clothing. Orchard Conveniences.--The orchardist who has to spray several times every year needs to have a handy supply of water which he can always depend on. It is good economy to have a well with a good pump near the orchard so the spray tank can be filled in a short time. It is expensive to have to haul water. It is also a good plan to have a spray platform some distance above the...
