The worthy ends proposed cannot fail to secure general approval. The future church is in the present Sunday-school. Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it. Every hope for the coming years centers in the boys and girls of to-day. To provide them, therefore, with competent instructors is the dictate of the highest wisdom. Many earnest souls, desiring to be useful in various other fields of lay effort, need to know how to study and handle the Word as the sword of the Spirit. It is believed that the movement now inaugurated is providentially...
