Ans. We hereby reply to your inquiry of November 11th as follows: Article 13, Sec. 14 of the Constitir tion was amended last year so as to provide a new system of taxation for State purposes. It provides that the cost of running the State government shall be borne exclusively by the public service and other quasi-public corporations. These corporations are exempt, however, from payment of any other taxes or licenses, state, county or municipal; excepting, that railroad companies, insurance companies and franchises are still liable to municipal taxation for the principal and interest of any bonded debt which may have been incurred prior to the adoption of the State Constitutional Amendment on Nov. 8th, 1910. Therefore, you are required to fill out this portion of the report by showing the value of corporation property which, under the State new Constitutional Amendment is liable for your bonded debt, if yon have any.
