An extra one of 2 per cent, was paid January, 1836, which made the dividends average exactly 8 per cent, for the previous ten years. Capital originally $300,000, at a par of $33. Cut down in 1840 to $225,000, and the par made $25, which was soon after changed to $100, by making every four shares into one. Tremont.--Two extra dividends were paid in 1844--10 per cent, in August, and 10 in December--making 35 per cent, divided within the year, although the table shows only 12--3, those being the amounts at the regular time of declaring, May and November. The dividend for 1846 was made in February. This company was conducted on the mutual plan from 1845 to 1849, which will account for the small dividends at that period. The company commenced winding up its affairs in 1851, and...
