Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Bulletin of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute: Opening Number October 1908 Both class and laboratory work in Physics and Chemistry are now given to all students in the freshman and sophomore years. The requirements in English and Modern Languages have been altered. Hereafter, freshmen and sophomores will take rhetoric while the junior year, instead of the senior as heretofore, will be given to English literature. Now the student may elect either German, French or Spanish for three successive years instead of being required, as formerly, to take two years of French or Latin and two of German. Latin has been dropped from the curriculum and Spanish substituted. The trend of all these changes is toward more election and more specialists work in the senior year. Under the new system all the general academic and fundamental preparation will be completed in the sophomore or junior year. The senior year will be devoted exclusively to intensive specialists study. Further election of studies is encouraged in the upper classes. The schedule has also been changed. The morning is divided...
