Brand New Book  Print on Demand .As Christians, God uses our experience and even our pain to develop our purpose in Him, strengthen the Church, and glorify His Kingdom. When we face tragedies like physical, sexual, mental, or verbal abuse, life-threatening illnesses, death of a loved one, single parenthood, failed marriages, broken relationships, imprisonment, or other unfavorable circumstances, we assume we are in an isolated, unique situation. If left unchecked, our emotions can cause us to become bitter, judgmental, and spiritually lost. Instead of bringing people to Christ by overcoming our challenges and allowing our testimony to strengthen others, we begin to operate in destructive behavior which not only hinder our spiritual maturity but, those around us as well. Out of ignorance, not fully understanding the Healing, Saving and Miracle-working power available to us through Jesus Christ, we can easily spiral downward. Instead of using our experience to glorify God - who has already planned to bring us out - and strengthen and support each other in our common challenges, too often we take destructive actions: we accept abuse or become abusive, diminish our self-worth, become gossipers and complainers, vow to never love again, disconnect emotionally, dismiss our family, become a distraction in our church, post attention-seeking comments and images on social media, entertain thoughts of suicide or give up on our future, goals, purpose, and Jesus altogether. But the story of our struggles and challenges doesn't have to take such a destructive path. By holding ourselves accountable, using the power of the Holy Spirit given to us, and elevating ourselves to a higher level in Jesus Christ, we can operate in the calling God has given us, make disciples,...
